DIRECTOR BIO

Johnny Lavance Allen is a writer, director, actor and producer who graduated in 2017 from DePaul University. He holds a Master of Fine Arts Degree with a concentration in Cinema. Currently he is an Assistant Professor of Speech/Theatre/Cinema at Alcorn State University in Lorman, MS. His most recent project was the Deal Rock up in which he played the lead character Porch

Man in a play in Port Gibson, MS. Nevertheless, being a filmmaker is where his passion is. He got his drive from acting on stage at six-years old in which he played a magician. Allen has been on his quest ever since to become a filmmaker that tells stories that not only entertain, but educate and impact lives.

CHARACTER BIO

Chris is a male in his early thirties and a fitness instructor who enjoys receiving gifts from other women than his current one. He has a deceiving personality and uses it to get things that he wants. Chris tends not to respect any relationship that he is in due to witnessing all the men in his life play on women emotions instead of cherishing them.

Tina is a female in her late 20's. She is a gym receptionist who is smart and ambitious with a dark sweet personality. She tends to be a giver but takes matters into her own hands when she senses things are not turning out the way she expected them. She is caught off guard when she finds out the person she loves is involved with someone else.

Jackie is a female in her early 30's who is a college advisor with a caring no nonsense attitude. She comes to her roads end when she realizes the man in her life no longer can be trusted. She wants to find it in her heart to forgive but finds it is very difficult when certain things keep happening.
